Purpose

In 2025, Kingaroy Golf Club became the first golf club in the South Burnett to be recognised as a signatory of the prestigious R & A Women in Golf Charter.

Underlying principles

The Kingaroy Golf Club has committed to building a modern inclusive club that champions equal opportunity and encourages participation in golf for everyone.

Key information

Golf Australia's Vision 2025: The Future of Women and Girls in Golf national strategy aims to ensure that golf is a sport where women and girls are inspired to participate, feel welcomed and nurtured throughout, and empowered to achieve their goals.

The Vision 2025 national strategy is playing a critical role in increasing female leadership and participation in golf in Australia through four key areas of the game:

1. Culture & Leadership
2. Grassroots
3. High Performance & Coaching
4. Marketing & Positioning

The Kingaroy Golf Club acknowledges the important role community golf clubs will play in transforming our sport into one that is highly engaging, accessible, and fully inclusive for women and girls.

Kingaroy Golf Club officially supports Golf Australia's Vision 2025 national strategy and commits to participating in national initiatives designed to increase the engagement of women and girls in golf.
